CONGRATS CLASS OF 2019!

Meg Miller with the Class of 2019

We want to say congratulations and best of luck to our graduating seniors from the class of 2019! We can't wait to see what you guys accomplish!

CONGRATULATIONS!

Congrats to the House
for maintaining a 3.3 house G.P.A.!

Recommend a DKE

If you know of any young men that embody the values of DKE, send your recommendations to Alumni Advisory Board President, Robert "Trey" Adams '06 at robertadams3@gmail.com.

Fraternity was Destiny for Brother's Sister

Frank Daniels Jr. '53 reminds us that his sister Patsy Daniels married fraternity brother Jim Lindley several years ago. According to Frank, "Jim and I graduated in 1953. He became very successful banker—at one point running the Bank of North Carolina. Later, he was a member of the board of the News and Observer."

1984 DKEs Gathering at Sea Island, Georgia

According to Alfred M. Randolph Jr. '84, the graduating class of 1984 DKEs are gathering at Sea Island, Georgia the weekend of March 22 to celebrate their 35th reunion.

Says Alfred, "Dr. Richard F. Hunt III is hosting us at his beautiful home there. We expect close to 100% turnout and are sure to have a great time. We'll send pictures to memorialize what is sure to be a great weekend."

Glenn Publishes Thriller Based on His Law Practice

According to his publicist, E. Vernon F. Glenn '72 has recently published a novel called Friday Calls, based on his experiences as a lawyer. Vernon's recent contact information is below:

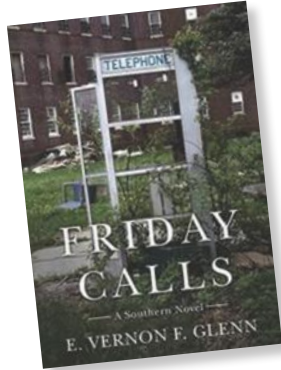

E. Vernon F. Glenn,
c/o Clore Law Group;
49 Immigration Street,
Suite 100,
Charleston SC 29403

Published last February, the story takes place in Winston-Salem, NC, (Glenn's hometown!) and revolves around two brutal crimes that happen within hours of each other. It explores the relationship between the old country club society and the rougher parts of town. The most fascinating aspect of this story is that it's based on true events that Vernon has experienced throughout his career as a lawyer.

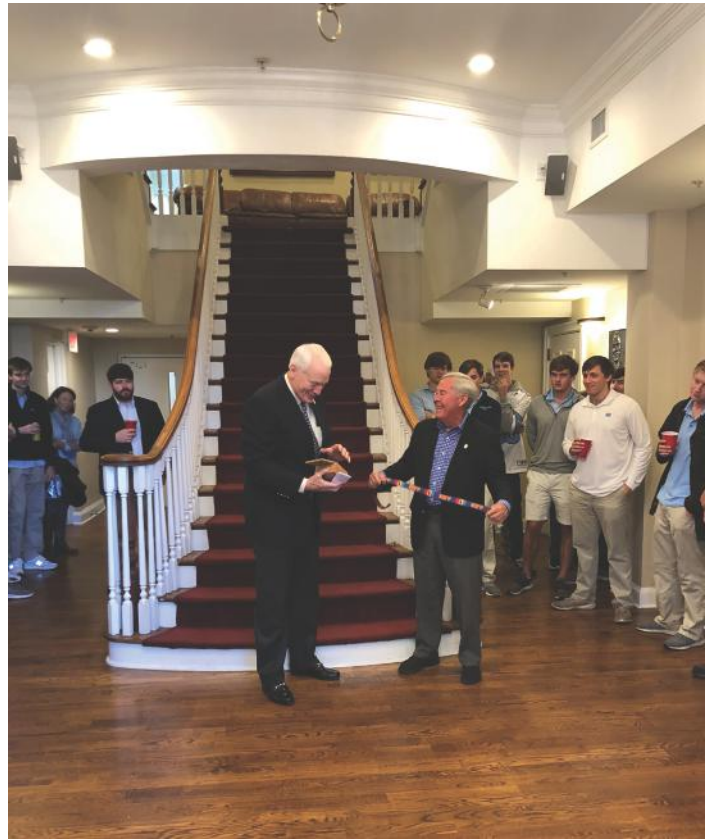

Vernon has several recent and upcoming North Carolina book events including:

- The Country Bookshop (Southern Pines)
March 29 at 5:00 p.m.
- Park Road Books (Charlotte)
April 6 at 2:00 p.m.
- McIntyre's (Chapel Hill)
May 12 at 2:00 p.m.

A review of the book is available online at <https://www.kirkusreviews.com/book-reviews/e-vernon-f-glenn/friday-calls/>.

Alumni Weekend Award

Tee Baur '68 presents the 1851 Award to Winburne King '68

Congratulations to Winburne King '68 for receiving the 1851 Award this past fall. We encourage everyone to attend the Alumni Weekend this fall on the weekend of October 26, 2019.

Class of 84 Reunion

The pledge class that graduated from UNC Chapel Hill in 1984 had a reunion recently in Sea Island, Georgia.

ANNUAL FUND UPDATE – A CALL TO ACTION

GOAL: $25,000

Our 2018/2019 giving year, which began on September 1, is almost over with $14,607 collected from 73 brothers. We want to thank those 73 brothers (you can find them under the Honor Roll tab at our website) who have already made a contribution to DKE UNC Annual Fund so far this giving year!

Our 2018-19 giving year goal was for $32,000.00. Last year only 96 out of 1,101 alumni chose to make a voluntary gift. We still have the potential to meet our goal—but we need your immediate help. Who will be next to join our 2018-2019 Honor Roll?

Giving Online is Easy!

You can donate online by simply going to our website, dkeunc.com and selecting the “Give Back” button at the top of the page. Donations can also be made through our toll-free Donation Hotline at 1-800-975-6699, or by sending a check made payable to Delta Kappa Epsilon—Beta Chapter to:

“DKE UNC was the center of my life at UNC. I made life-long friends there. Supporting the fund is my way of saying thank you.”

Our college days came and went, but the real DKE UNC experience never ends. If you cherish those lasting friendships, if you appreciate the values that shaped your life, make your annual gift Today!

Thank you to everyone who pledged to the Four Corners Campaign. It was a great success! If you have outstanding debts please make sure to get them current.

CHAPTER ETERNAL

Fredrick Joseph Ball, Jr. '71

Frederick Joseph Ball, Jr. died peacefully at the home of his sister Katherine in New York City on the evening of January 15, 2019, at the age of 71.

A native of Washington, DC, Fred was a gifted athlete and skillful fund raiser working for a number of institutions including Lawrenceville School. He was also a lifelong, devoted Catholic. He was the heart of the Class of '71 at Beta DKE and continued to rally the class for well-attended reunions every five years. Fred is survived by his loving children Frederick III and Ryan Williams (Nick); sisters Judy Ball Scanlon (Terrence) and Katherine Ball Ross; brother Brian, Sr. and numerous nieces and nephews. He was buried with his parents, Frederic, Sr. and Juelda Watson Ball, and his sister Melinda. The family celebrated Fred's life and greeted many of his friends at Annunciation Catholic Church, 3810 Massachusetts Avenue, NW, Washington, DC on February 1.

Donations in Fred's memory may be made to the Robert Packard Center for ALS Research (www.alscenter.org).

Clarence Avery Duff '71

Clarence Avery Duff passed away January 21st at the age of 70. A native of Chattanooga, Tennessee, he graduated summa cum laude from the Baylor School. Avery was a fun, interesting and loyal Beta DKE in the Class of '71 graduating Phi Beta Kappa from UNC after which he earned a JD from Georgetown University Law Center. He made partner in a prestigious law firm in Chattanooga after having practiced for five years. Following a long-held interest, Avery moved to Los Angeles to fulfill his passion for writing. He had numerous screen credits before publishing the first of his successful novels Beach Lawyer followed by The Boardwalk Option and The Boardwalk Trust. Avery is survived by his sister Elizabeth Woods (John) and their children Avery, Katie and Abbie; and his brother Frank Duff (Libby) and their children John and Lizzie Costa (Reese) and their children Lewis and Els.

Our thanks to O. Beech Watson, III, Beta DKE Class of '71 at UNC, Chapel Hill, for supplying obituary information.
